
1/30/08 - Judge DEBORAH BERNINI - CV 2006-3068 - SANCHEZ (Bradley E. Thrush of Thrush, Clark & Pahl) v FRENCH (██████████) (██████████) Douglas W. Glasson of Barassi, Curl & Abraham, P.L.C.) - PERSONAL INJURY - REAREND. Case being tried on appeal of an arbitration award. Plntf, female, operating a pickup truck, alleged that, while stopped for a red light, eastbound Roger Road, at the intersection with Stone Avenue, she was rear-ended by Dfnt, who was operating a Nissan two-door sedan. Plntf called the investigating police officer. Dfnt, female, admitted negligence, but argued causation. Dfnt called Robert D. Anderson, B.S.E., an accident reconstructionist and biomechanist. Plntf alleged she sustained cervical and lumbosacral strains and sprains, with permanent residuals. Plntf called Ernesto R. Gutierrez, M.D., an internist. Dfnt argued impact was minor. Dfnt also argued the low-speed collision did not cause any permanent and/or ongoing injuries. Additionally, Dfnt argued Plntf's medical treatment was unreasonable and unnecessary. Dfnt called Mark E. Frankel, M.D., an orthoped. Prayer: Just and reasonable compensatory damages; plus an unspecified amount for medical expenses. (Carrier: Unknown.) Two day trial. Jury out one-plus hours. FOUND FOR DFNT. UNANIMOUSLY.
