Thank you again. It was our privilege to represent you.

Mr. Glasson was very professional and cordial with me and my family. He made every effort to understand my circumstance and all the events surrounding my case. He worked very hard to investigate the issues and contact the other parties and interpret to us the potential options we were facing in moving forward with my case. He did an excellent job to be a liaison between me and the other party and to insure that a reasonable negotiation can be reached with minimal consequence for everybody. He repeatedly mentioned that I was his top priority and was very respectful. I truly enjoyed working with Mr. Glasson and would highly recommend anybody else with a similar circumstance to consult Mr. Glasson for legal advice. He did an exceptional job.
